

bullsheet@denison.edu | denisonbullsheet.com | @DUBullsheat

The Bullsheet, a forum for news, humor, and community dialogue, is funded by DEGA and is printed each day that classes are in session. Submissions must be sent before 6:30pm for next day submission via e-mail to: bullsheet@denison.edu. Submissions herein solely reflect the opinions of the authors. We do not accept anonymous submissions, so please remember to include a full name or Slayter Box number.

Edited last night by: Isabellaaa
Delivered this morning by: Katieeee
vol. LXIII/ no. 33/ October 15, 2019

FARWEWELL KNEES: IT'S COLD NOW, MAYBE

Well, it's Fall now.

I guess. Possibly. Hard to say, really, as we've got a low this week in the mid 30s and a high in the upper 70s. No one really seems to know what's going on, judging by some of the fashions I've seen around campus lately. I've spotted boots and sandals, hoodies and tupe tops, shorts and—*gasp* long pants. It's really quite disorienting. I've had to dress in layers. LAYERS, GUYS. That's way more planning than I want to do in the morning. And I never know whether to make cold or hot coffee. The other day I had a Pumpkin Spice Latte while wearing a sundress, like an absolute heathen. So if anyone wants to hit up Leo DiCaprio and ask him to get this whole "global warming" thing wrapped up soon, I'd appreciate it.

HUMOR ?

— Isabella Puccini, Senior Editor

HAPPY NATIONAL...CHEESE CURD DAY!

(AND ONLY NATIONAL CHEESE CURD DAY)

Hi Denison dearies! I am beyond pleased to announce what might be the purest, least problematic, most uncontroversial National Holiday that we've had the privilege of celebrating in the past 6 weeks of National Holiday celebrations. That's right—today, October 15, is National Cheese Curd Day!

I know, I know, the perfect day. The only way you could be anti-this day is if you were a healthy eater (not valid), lactose intolerant (somewhat valid, but you're on thin ice), or a Wisconsin hater (highly valid. Go Bears.) But to anyone else—uncomplicated, non-partisan cheesy bliss. Literally nothing could ruin this day for me. Absolutely nothi—wait, sorry, what? It's what?

Hold on a sec y'all. I'm getting something from my producer. Let me just take this real quick. Hey Beth, sorry, but I must have misheard you. It sounded like you said something totally crazy... [...] No...you can't be serious. That can't be right. [...] It's...oh christ...it's really...National Pro-Life Day of Silent Solidarity? [...] Look, I'm-I-I can't deal with that today. I-It's National Cheese Curd Day. [...] I don't care what nationaldaycalendar.com says, Beth. IT'S NATIONAL CHEESE CURD DAY, OKAY? JUST NATIONAL CHEESE CURD DAY. I JUST NEED ONE DAY BETH. JUST ONE DAY. IS THAT TOO MUCH TO ASK FOR BETH? JUST ONE SIMPLE, PAINLESS DAY OF CHEESE. BUT I COULDN'T HAVE THAT IN THIS COUNTRY, COULD I, BETH? YOU JUST HAD TO BRING ME DOWN. YOU ALWAYS DO THIS, BETH, THIS IS SO YOU, BETH—

ALRIGHT, sorry about that! Nothing to worry about—she was just concerned that I would forget to remind you to make sure to pick up a dipping sauce of your choice for your cheese curds. Ha, as if! Who could forget about dipping sauce? It's National Cheese Curd Day, after all!

just look at the cheese curds

do NOT google Bryan Kemper

*let's just focus on cheese curds.
please, just cheese curds.
I'm begging you*

HUMOR

— Isabella Puccini, Senior Editor

'CALL THEM THE MOONIES, OR ELSE' ADMINISTRATION GENTLY THREATENS

This Just In: Denison Admin has confirmed that the official Univeristy-mandated nickname “The Moonies” for newly christened social space Moon Hall is beloved by all, firmly encourages critics to keep it to themselves.

“Get it? The Moonies? Like the Sunnies?” chirped soon-to-be-ex-Vice President of Student Development Laurel Kennedy in between long swigs from a “Retired, Not Expired” mug. “It indicates positive forward change.” When asked about student concerns surrounding the inconvenient and potentially dangerous implications of a designated drinking building located next to a road and at the bottom of a hill that nearly every student lives at the top of, Kennedy paused, poured an unspecified clear liquid into her mug from a “Goodbye Tension, Hello Pension!” tumbler. She continued, a little tersely, “Close to 1100 people voted in the naming contest. Have you heard of Alex Tubbs ‘20 and William Kelsey ‘23? Those are definitely real students.” When pressed for comment on the restrictions on hard alcohol, Kennedy stood up and chanted “Positive. Forward. Change.” progressively louder and louder until our reporters became very uncomfortable and left.

“Sure, it’s technically Moon Hall—but isn’t ‘The Moonies’ so cute?” Dean of Students Bill Fox was quoted saying while smiling perhaps a bit too widely, according to our sources. “I mean, why wouldn’t anyone want to call them that? What sort of awful person wouldn’t want to call them by such a nice, clever, perfect name? I certainly wouldn’t want anyone like that on our campus.” When one of our reporters informed Dean Fox that they had in fact voted for “Deck Hall,” and another added that they thought that the nickname “The Moonies” seemed a bit too obvious, the Dean somehow smiled even wider, saying, “Well, that’s just too bad for you, isn’t it?” The silence that followed reportedly hung thick with things left unsaid, and promises too horrible to speak out loud. Our reporters described a look in Dean Fox’s eyes that they “could not name, but could not easily shake.”

University President Adam Weinberg has yet to be seen on campus in the wake of the name’s announcement, but an anonymous source has informed us that a number of Campus Safty officers with “unsettling airs about them” have been spotted entering and exiting the President’s office at all hours of the day and night. The source claimed that, upon pressing their ear to the door on one such occasion, they were able to catch a few snatches of conversation, including “the logs have been cleared” and “the truth will be buried with us” and “can you believe they seriously thought we would have let them name it The Pod?”

SATIRE
(FOR NOW)

– Isabella Puccini, Senior Editor

BROUGHT TO YOU BY

A TRIP TO PATASKALA HAUNTED FOREST

- Friday, October 25
6:30 PM – 9:30 PM
(Depart from Mitchell) (Arrive on campus)
(Transportation included)
- Reserve your seat at Slayter on 10/15–10/16 and 10/21–10/23
9:30 AM – 3:30 PM
(Bring $5 for deposit)
- Contact: Thao Dinh
(dinh_t1@denison.edu)

Mental Health First Aid Training

An opportunity to learn the warning signs and risk factors of mental illnesses and learn how to help both yourself and others in a crisis

Saturday, November 2,
8:00 am - 4:00 pm
Huffman President's Dining Room

Like CPR training, this is a course to prepare participants to interact with someone in a crisis and seek out the proper help. You will receive official certification at the end of this course.

Sponsored by Denison Active Minds

- \_ (ツ) \_ / -

*my weather app
every morning*

Staff “Isabella’s plea to campus” Box

- ..... Jax “submit” Preyer, Managing Editor .....
- ..... Isabella “content” Puccini, Senior Editor .....
- ..... Sophia “on” Menconi, Senior Editor .....
- ..... James “my” Whitney, Sophomore Editor .....
- ..... Zach “editing” Correia, Head Writer .....
- ..... Jay “night” Huff, Senior Writer .....
- ..... Charlie “you” Schweiger, Junior Writer .....
- ..... Elizabeth “absolute” Arterberry, Junior Writer .....
- ..... Katie “cowards” Kerrigan, Junior Writer .....
- ..... Jack “!” May, Sophomore Writer .....

I’m just a Truly girl living in a White Claw world