The daily crime log is public information and mandated under the U.S. Clery Act of 1990. Names of individuals are not recorded in the log due to overlapping federal privacy protections for students.  Editors Notes: This is only the second time that the reports have been published here but this has to be pretty close to the best one. It has the spunk of anarchism mixed with the no-way-this-totally-isn't intoxicating energy of Taco Dan's. If you're out there Reliever of the Night, I would like to interview you for an anonymous exposes about your experience if you want to contact me. My Slayer Box is #7056

JOIN THE BULLSHEET!

HEAR YE, HEAR YE!

Do you like very early mornings in a peaceful but still dank office watching the sunrise over Granville and then being tired by lunch? Do you enjoy writing news and opinion pieces that people will actually read on campus? Do you want friends that you will share a class with but will never talk to?

JOIN THE BULLSHEET!

The Bullsheet is on the hunt for people looking to join our Mötley Crüe as writers and editors. So if you like writing and editing (but not in the way ya think!) please email bullsheet@denison.edu and let us know you would like an application. Then, you'll fill it out, give it back to us, we'll look it over, laugh uproariously, and the rest will be history. May the odds be ever in your favor.

xoxo,
