HAPPY NATIONAL...PIZZA WITH THE WORKS EXCEPT ANCHOVIES DAY!

Ciao Denison! I hope everyone is having a lovely day. And how could they not, when it's today, November 12, National Pizza with the Works Except Anchovies Day! Gosh, it's days like today that really make you pause, look around, and think—"Why is this a national holiday? Who comes up with this stuff? Can anyone just make up a national holiday? Are there forms you have to fill out to get them certified or what?"

Nevertheless, this is truly a day worthy of celebration. It's easy to feel like the world is so polarized nowadays, with everyone at each other's throats about everything. But days like these remind us all that no matter what, the only "parties" that truly matter are that of liking anchovies, or that of possessing functioning taste buds.

For members of the latter party—rejoice! Today is our day. Together we stand, strong, united, for a better world.

a pizza worthy of love and affection

forbidden

kinda odd lookin' but still infinitely superior to an anchovy
