VALENTINE'S DAY WITH THE FLU

ARTS / CULTURE

A VALENTINE'S DAY POEM

My friends think I'm addicted to you,
I've got to say, I think I am too.

I greet you in the morning and you bid me goodnight,
Without us, life wouldn't be right.

Across this great Earth, one day we might roam
But your sweet-sour smell is forever my home away from home.

Breathing you in elicits a comfort so fine
And I'm so glad to call you mine.

Lady Mary Jane, though our affair breaks federal and Denisonian law,
Our love is something to forever behold in awe.
