INK UP

Do you really want a tattoo but you just aren't sure what to get?! Well I have compiled a list of the perfect tattoos for your major! These minimalist tattoos are sure to define who are as a person based solely on your choice of academic career. Don't think of these tattoos as mainstream or stereotypical, think of them as "creative" or "inspired" or even "academic" :) Happy inking!

Disclaimer: this is based entirely on my biased opinion .... so don't take offense. This is all fun and games (but if you are offended email Adam Weinberg!)

THE BRICK SITUATION

Something has recently come to my attention. After reading through the crime log and doing the crime reports, I noticed a pattern. From 9/12 to 10/11, there have been six cases of property damage. Specifically, property damage being done to the bricks, concrete and traffic cones set up near them on campus. Denison students, staff, and associates, I ask you this: what have they done to you? Whoever is doing this, what are you doing with our bricks? Please, think about what you’re doing to the community. Think about our bricks.

For reference, here are the exact reports received by Campus Security:

- 9/21 - 7:43am, A-Quad: Unknown person removed 12 bricks from the walkway.
- 9/24 - 9:05am, West Quad: Paver bricks found missing from quad walkway in front of Curtis Dining/Curtis West.
- 9/26 - 8:05pm, Higley Hall: Student took a safety cone marking missing sidewalk bricks.
- 10/10 - 9:00am, Samson Talbot: Students took a brick from the academic quad.
- 10/10 - 9:00am, Huffman Dining: Concrete blocks from the wall near Huffman Dining damaged in 2 places.
- 10/10 - 6:52pm, Higley Hall: A male student was observed running and kicking an orange cone belonging to Campus Safety that was covering a trip/fall hazard.

As you can see, October 10th was quite the day for campo. I suspect possible collusion and plotting, but between who, I can’t be sure. If you have any information on the sick bastards that are doing this, I beg you to submit your insider knowledge to the Bullsheet. I won’t rest until this campus and our bricks are safe.

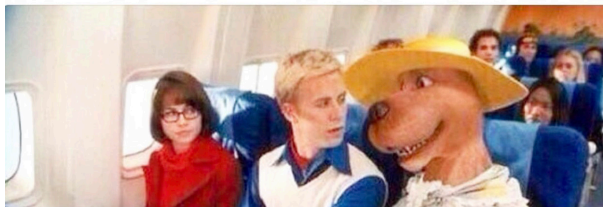

Stay vigilant. Keep your eye out for any lone bricks. Also, don’t trip.
