EASTER EGG HUNT

In honor of today (when I am editing this) being Easter, I am composed a fun little activity for all 10 of our avid readers. In this sheet is a special egg hunt! I have hidden many pics of easter eggs within this paper, look carefully... some may just be hiding in unexpected places. Look throughout this sheet and circle all the eggs you find, write the total at the top, along with your name and slayer box. Then slip it under the door of the Bullsheet office (first floor of knapp)! If you got the right number of eggs, we will contact you for your special prize!!!!

RENAME THE ANIMALS!!!!!!!!!!!!

Spring is upon on! This means a few things: warmer weather, flowers blooming, trees blossoming, DAY DRINKING ON THE IMs AHHHHHHH, shorts and tank tops, girls trying to tan every free moment they have, people hanging ENO hammocks by the Shorney cemetery, and of course many bees that swarm around your Slayer fries on A quad. ANNND this meanss...baby animals!!!! Spring time and Easter to me means that there are many new little baby puppies, bunnies, chicks, lambs, etc popped up all over. This got me thinking about the names we currently have for animals and while these names are fine, they are boring and sometimes inaccurately describe the cuteness or the nature of the animal. Therefore, after a lot of deep thinking and reflection, these are the new names I have devised for many different animals. These names better reflect the animals. Enjoy and please only only ONLY use these new SCIENTIFIC names.

Bunny = Floppity Loppity

Fluffy Dogs = Land Clouds

Seals = Swimmy Blubber Doggos

Elephants = Super Jumbo Stompers

Sting Rays = Ocean Smiley Flip-Flap

Ducklings = Flightless Feather Quacker

Sheep = Curly Fluff Wool Machine
