CLASS OF 2025 BY THE NUMBERS

700ish first year students	43 scattered awkwardly around the beach with solo cups
38 positive covid tests
48 already declared DA majors	223 will regret major life choices within three weeks
48 future bitter economics majors	3 will attempt to roll down the hill to south quad (you get some speed but god does it hurt)
8 brand new BMWs with parking tickets	1 hides hardcore wallace and gromit porn under their bed
19 left their phones at the homestead
3 discerning moral agents in a democratic society	5 accidentally found the wallace and gromit porn 77 knows who it is but won't tell anyone
2 piss kinks (match made in heaven <3)	eel 33 (that's a nice number)
34 poor souls in Beta House	6876 possibilities. Good luck in this year class of 2025! you got this!

Freshman Disorientation 2021

Dear class of 2025,

Welcome to Denison. It's safe to say that you all are CLEARLY the best group of autonomous thinkers, discerning moral agents, and active citizens in a democratic society that this campus has ever seeb. We hope you have enjoyed your first week and haven't ripped too many water fountains/exit signs out of Shorney.

The Bullsheet is here to give you a place to espouse your opinions, engage in constructive dialogue, and to make your mom proud when she googles your name (can confirm this is true). We publish every day for your (but mostly our) pleasure, so be sure to pick up a copy around campus, check us out online at denisonbullsheet.com, or email Adam Weinberg for a complementary audio recording of the daily sheet. Above all else, remember to love fully, Live simply, and Laugh at least more than twice a day. We know you need something to do while procrastinating that paper, so feel free to send us a submission. As you will come to learn we will run just about anything.

As a farewell here are some wise words to help you get through these first couple of weeks.

All things are temporary, even your sizzle
