HOW TO FIND THE PERFECT HAUNTED DOLL FOR YOU

Adding a new addition to the family is an exciting but daunting process. Whether it's a dog, a cat, or a spirit residing in a porcelain baby doll, the first step in adoption should always involve asking yourself a series of questions long before you fill out any paperwork:

“What is my lifestyle? What is a good match for my personality? What are the levels of care and paranormal activity I can handle?”

These questions are crucial to think about before making a lifelong commitment to your haunted doll. Some spirits are just more evil, chaotic, and demonic than others, and that's okay! Keep an open mind and heart, but you should always know what you're getting into ahead of time. Here are four tips and tricks to choosing the best haunted doll for you.

1) Do a background check on your doll and their seller. The last thing you want is a “haunted” doll from an eBay seller with no reputation. Pay close attention to the doll's description: is it long, descriptive, and has world building? It's most likely a fake! Is it urgent, frightened, and short? You might have found yourself a keeper. Here are some examples:

“Highly Active Spirit Haunted TY baby Doll (princess Diana): unknown exactly how to describe what's going on I originally had this doll for sale with two other dolls but I had to cancel because this is really freaky we have been hearing real soft scary female voice with( English accent )having problems making out exactly what is being said maybe someone else can so I placed her in a Ziploc baggie for safekeeping from herself or other elements” This is real.

“HAUNTED SUCCUBUS NUN PARANORMAL REAL. haunted DOLL NOT A TOY!. This is no joke I have suck marks all over my midsection from this demon I wake up with bruises every morning and I even hear and feel it getting on my bed , if your into this kinda thing then this one is for you . Follow me on my YouTube channel ----.” This is fake.

“Extremely Haunted Stuffed Monkey Doll - Old Looking and Possibly Rare. Looks really old and might be hand stitched. Might be missing some things, not sure...I think this thing belongs in a museum. I'm absolutely terrified of this doll. You can feel the evil oozing out of it. It's always smiling... almost like it knows something that you don't. PLEASE only purchase if you're experienced and ready to deal with the evil that comes with this doll. I don't want it anymore and I don't want to give it to someone who isn't ready.” Not sure about this one.

2) Know the costs. All haunted dolls are different. Some require new clothing or hosts, others will break all of your fragile items until you are forced to replace them. Always prepare for the unexpected, and keep a reserve just in case things go south.

3) Give more dangerous and malevolent spirits a chance. Many of these dolls remain unbought for years, gathering dust in the padlocked salt-infused box their current owners seal them in. Unless they are an S+ Grade spirit, there's always a shot at redemption.

4) Set you and your doll up for success. Prepare a comfortable, secure environment that can be monitored at all times. There is always a chance a seemingly kind spirit will harm/turn on you, or reveal itself to be a trickster. Stay alert and guarded. If this happens, bring your doll to a trained P.I who can work with the spirit.
