DOES DENISON HAVE A STARING PROBLEM OR AM I JUST FUGLY?

Everywhere I go, people seem to give me the stink eye. I first started recognizing this my first semester of freshman year, but I played it off in my head as a COVID-19 issue. We had just come out of absolute lock down in our houses, so it was weird seeing other people. Yet, it continued throughout the rest of the year. I thought for a second maybe they were looking at my awesome outfits, but then came to a fast realization that I dress like Kurt Cobain and a 80 year old man had a child. So that definitely could not be it. Finally it hit me this year, after all the COVID restrictions have eased, Denison just has a staring problem. I brought this point up to my friends, but nobody shared the same opinion. I was perplexed because everywhere I go people look at me like I have shit all over my face. I walked into the bathroom and looked into the mirror and then it hit me. I might just be fugly. I will get to the bottom of this question, but from what I can gather.....I might be fugly.
