RANKING SLAYTER BATHROOMS

How often have you had to duck into Slayter because you needed to relieve yourself or wind up looking like a storm cloud passed over your crotch? Only to find the first floor bathroom wet and dirty. This is no hate to our cleaning staff---you're doing great, college students are just nasty.

Starting with...

The First Floor: -900/10

Every time I set foot into the first floor bathrooms I worry about contracting some sort of disease from the multiple questionable fluids. The singular light casts an ominous shadow that makes them even less identifiable. I refuse to let any body part or article of clothing touch anything in these bathrooms. I need a hazmat suit to even set foot in one.

Now... onto

The Second Floor: 5.75/10

Conveniently right next to the mailroom so I can pick up my mail after sitting in the bathroom waiting for the mail line to shorten. 4.25 points off for the tiling and the wide gaps in the stalls that basically lose all semblance of privacy. Also what's up with the raised toilet seats? Y'all afraid of splash?

Can't forget...

Third Floor: sqrt(49)/10

Nice when I'm hanging out on the third floor at night, enjoying that greasy, delicious Nest food. Very spacious. 3 points off for the Backrooms aesthetic, yellow and fluorescent, and also having to listen to the elevator every time people hold it at floor 4 and it makes that high pitched screech.

And for the Holy Grail, Slayter Fourth Floor: 500/10

The gender-neutral bathroom on the fourth floor is the Holy Grail of Slayter Bathrooms. Total privacy, the door locks. Perfect for when a host of Survivor forces you into hiding with a water balloon (Mason Allen). The other bathrooms are the best as well. Sleek modern look, spacious, and windows. Perfection.

TOP 10 HOTELS FOR SPRING BREAK

Let's face it---we all need a break and thank god you can really go wherever you want, depending on the price. So here is a list of the 10 best hotels to stay at, in no particular order:

Elephante Butte Inn, New Mexico

Located in the town of Elephante Butte, it looks dope. Hopefully, you could find some elephante dung along the way ;)

Big Dick's Highway Inn, Missouri

You could say that this has some big energy. It has a gift shop, so you can get some grand gifts from Big Richard himself.

French Lick Inn, Indiana

For real, you have to check this place out. It has a nice golf course and some swimming.

Balls Deep Inn Villas, Japan

I hope it has ping pong balls!!!

Holiday Inn

This could be any holiday inn actually. They are all usually nice. I love their breakfast. The waffles are god-tier.

Covered Wagon, Arizona

An actual wagon in Arizona in which you can stay. Please someone rent this and stay here.

Caesar's Palace, VEGAS

My fave part of the list is when we talk about Vegas. The palace is truly amaze. If you go please be advised that it is hard to navigate, so find a guide.

MGM Grand, VEGas

This one really yells VEGAS. You can see a magic show how sweet is that? I mean, David Copperfield is the king of Magic.

Planet Hollywood, vegas

This hotel fucking blows chunks do not set foot even if you are paid by Mr. Hollywod himself.

An Actual Elephant Inn (Lucy the Elephant,) New Jersey

This is an actual wooden elephant in New Jersey. It looks wild. *Please take a moment to go look at the photos they have.

*Editors note: photos have been attached for your convenience. Look upon her in awe.
