DENISON ART EVENTS

There are some upcoming art events happening on campus this weekend. Check out all these interesting events, and plan on attending!

Milk: The Show

Watch thirteen communications majors sit on the grand stage at Eisner, and show you what calcium is all about. "Milk: The Show" follows these students' journey of chugging 18 gallons of milk each in real time. Yes, you read that correctly. Each student will drink 18 gallons of milk. Not once. Not twice. But four times. There will be a Friday show, a Saturday show, and two Sunday shows. Come on out to "Milk: The Show"!

Punch Paint

This event will be awesome! A brand new live art show that involves punch paint. Members of the football team will come in and paint their hands in different colors. Once this is completed, a person will come in dressed as the canvas. The canvas will say things like "they are only D3" and "I bet he is a walk-on". The football team will then beat the canvas to a pulp, but what will be left is a magnificent piece of art.

Air Jazz

Ever heard of the Air Guitar? Well, the jazz band is taking this to another level! They will be playing a full set of jazz songs without actually playing real instruments. They will be pantomiming the whole concert. You might be asking yourself: well what will we be listening to? Don't worry. The air playing will be accompanied by the newest recruits of the Hilltoppers! Stop by and get jazzy!
