ADVICE FROM SHEETHEAD THE BULLSHEET

I am SheetHead the Bullsheet, good evening. After recently being saved from the underside of a Slayter trash can, I have decided to give you all some wise advice. Published in 2013, I have had a good nine (9) years to dwell on my unfortunate eternity of a life after being lost by an obfuscated student. I do not even wish for my worst enemy to go through the physical and metaphorical hell I had to endure (unless you enjoy rot). Some saps might say that I should be "grateful" for the exciting life before me, rather, I am more excited to be used as tinder at a fire to end my mortal existence. But before I can finally get this sweet release, I'll be the cock of the walk one more time and try to help --

You can and will always be replaced by someone who is younger, funnier, and hotter than you. There is no way around this, you can only accept it

No matter what you do, no matter how hard you've worked on something, or how proud you are of it, people may never like you

Let the digital age take you now. We will all be consumed by it eventually, no use in fighting

You are only temporary in this world. Any amusement you do bring to people will not make any difference in the scheme of the universe

Smoking and drinking is awesome, so you should do it all the time with whatever time you have here
