SKIP AND GO NAKED

Yesterday was and forever will be my favorite academic day of the year. It is just such divine timing that the day we bring 500 underage high school seniors and their parents to school to sight-see around A-quad in massive clumps, we also have students run out of the library butt-naked right at lunch time. God I love it here! What a commotion!

The first time I gathered outside of Fellows my freshman year for the mystery that was naked week, I had never even seen that many people in one space on campus before. It's a special time when the community gets to come together to celebrate streaking--something Denisonian's have always been very fond of.

If you wanna streak this week go ahead! If you wanna watch people streak go ahead! If you wanna film people streaking GTF0H!!! You suck.

We should give everyone a scooter and an ipad

CLAIRE ANDERSON
Junior Editor

Denison is falling behind. We need to innovate immediately if we want to keep up with larger institutions of higher knowledge like OSU. Everything needs to get bigger, and newer, and more technological, and individualized, and everyone needs a scooter and an ipad. Gone are the days of enjoying your walk to A-quad with friends, waving at others you pass by. There is no more time to take in the campus as you stroll. We need to innovate people! NOW! Every single person should be scooting to and from class as fast as they possibly can.

As for classes-- pen and paper is outta here. Who wants to actually write out notes anymore? Boring! Just take picture of the board with your brand-new ipad every fifteen to twenty minutes, and play games the rest of the time. My favorite game is Cut the Rope.

This will be costly, as Denison has 2500 students, but I think it is worthwhile. I think we should push this idea as hard as possible leading up to the Day of Giving, and hope tht an alum will donate all of the ipads and scooters. Boom. Its practically free that way. This is the future, and we need to make sure we are apart of it.

Elmo thinks that we should get rid of 8:30's

ELMO
Muppet Character

Elmo has an 8:30 this semester and Elmo doesn't like it.

Elmo has to wake up at 8:30 on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday and that makes Elmo tired. Elmo want this to happen now, because Elmo want to be able to sleep in.

Elmo want to get rid of 8:30 and make everything start at 10:00. Elmo like 10:00 way more than 8:30.

10 is Elmo's favorite number.

Elmo '25 is a Economics and Data Analytics double major from Sesame Street, NY.
