In search of God

Today I was almost killed in a major car collision involving a semi-truck. I survived, but I have questions. Was it dumb luck... or divine intervention? If the latter, why? What purpose do I have to fulfill? I need to find God and get the answers.

Seeking pro-bono criminal defense lawyer.

I did NOT do something really bad but I need your help desperately. It involves chemicals and the unrelated but coincidental poisoning of several small towns. I am innocent but a jury may not find me so.

Security Guard Search -- Provide Resume

Recently I've found myself in possession of rare treasures such as golden coins and finely cut gems. They are safely locked away in my treasure chest (don't get any ideas) but I need someone to keep an eye on it while in class. Can't trust roommate.
