CAMP OR DENISON?

Abby Webster '27, Student
Submission

Let's play a game. I went to summer camp for 10 years and I did a semester of online school at this camp. Here are some things that I have experienced and I'll let you guess if they happened here or at summer camp.

People leaving underwear places
Dirt and sand getting all over the floor
Being mentally stable
Sounding like a the rice crispy cereal
Writing random things on the walls
An entire family staring at me while I eat
Falling on my face and crying
Wrapping a bandanna around a cut I got because I didn't have Band-aids.
Getting an addiction to Jellycats.
Being in fear of an asthma attack.
Embroidering a pair of pants.
Screaming. Like a lot.
Thirteen being an unlucky number
Giving a lot of Tarot readings.
Falling asleep in a chair.
Having fun on thunder dome fights

$LAYER UPGRADE

Claire, Slayter Local

Here's a list of things I would like the school to consider when they inevitably update Slayter Union in seven years.

SLOT MACHINES. They could put them on the second floor right next to the ATMs. Great way to let off some steam in between classes and learn about risk!

WHITE PLASTIC PLAYGROUND FURNITURE. Oh wait did they already do this?

A PRINTER THAT WORKS. Just a suggestion.

PIZZA HUT WHERE THE DELI IS. This actually came to me in a dream, and it was weird because in my dream everyone was upset that they chose Pizza Hut to replace the deli but I was stoked.

EGG CHAIRS. Bring them back to the fourth floor I miss them. Had so many memories freaking out about writing papers in those.

CAMPUS FORAGING

Griffin Conley, @griffin_eatz

Local eating just got a whole lot easier on campus! If you thought living at the homestead was the only way to eat food grown on campus, buckle up! With the groundskeeping team deciding that kale is now an appropriate decorative plant, here are some fun ways to do some farm(Olin) to fork cooking.

Roasted kale. Rip off about three cups of kale leaves and toss with some olive oil(available at Slivy's). Roast in an oven at 350 for about 20 minutes.

Braised Kale. Always wondered what you could possibly use half a gallon of apple cider from Slayter for? Here's a suggestion! Add three cups of kale and a third of a cup of apple cider to an oven safe dish and roast for however long you want. [Okay, yeah it doesn't use the whole bottle, sue me]

"Pesto". If using almonds is an affront to your Nonna's recipe, this one might not be for you. First step is to forage for black walnuts. Look on the ground for ones that may have already opened. Saves a lot of time. Next add about five cups of kale to your mortar and pestle or Robot Coupe(food processor is fine). Grind your kale with a bit of olive oil until you get a rough paste. Here, add the black walnuts and keep going till you get your desired texture. Mangia mangia!
