“GRANVILLE’S MOST GRATEFUL PUBLICATION”

Vol. XLIV, No. 59

Welcome back to

HELL DEAL

*I'm sure you missed it here!
and if you never left... good for you!*

WHAT YOU SHOULD BE THANKFUL FOR

Carter Seipel,
Carter Seipel

This Thanksgiving the unthinkable happened:

Sat at the table, some nameless relative asks “So what is everyone thankful for?” I watched in horror as everyone went around giving honest and thoughtful answers. I excused myself and locked myself inside the bathroom. One stressful hour later, I triumphantly emerged with a list of the best things to be thankful for. Here’s what I wrote:

The ability to see the color green
Almonds
Michael Cera
Paintings of sunflowers
My 3 o’clock cold brew
Glue
Bubble wrap
Bubble gum that lasts long
Mail boxes that are out of side mirror range
People brave enough to kill bugs
Some amount of Bob Dylan songs
I don’t have any children
Stools
Horse shaped chess pieces
Vitamins

And you, the loyal reader of the Bullsheet. We have a very special (parasocial) relationship I couldn’t live without.

EAVES DROPPIN'

Anonymous

I've spent some time away lurking in the shadows of campus. Barely present but always listening... Here is another installment of eaves droppin'. ONE of these quotes is false, see if you can guess which one it is! Answer key not provided.

"I have so much PTSD with corn. Every time I have ever eaten corn on the cob I've thrown up"

"Before playgrounds did people just play in grass?"

"You don't always have to put something in a hole but you can experiment"

Dude: "Jimmy John's dude? Who would voluntarily eat there? Did you enjoy it?"

Dudes friend: "Fuck you dude, yeah I did"

Dude: "Can I get a pepperoni pizza?"

Dudes friend: "fucking fat ass"

"D Chi" (pronounced as dee-chee)

"You ever look at somebody and you think 'you're in an intro biology class and also the most annoying person I've ever met?'"

"Starting tomorrow I can drink and drive"

"I just feel like its different with British people"

"Yeah all my root vegetables drowned. Very sad."

"There's gotta be something deeply wrong with me"
