"GRANVILLE'S LARGEST DAILY PUBLICATION"

Vol. XLIV, No. 68

TO THE PERSON THAT THREW YESTER-DAY'S BULLSHEET IN THE TRASH

TO THE PERSON THAT THREW YESTERDAY'S BULLSHEET IN THE TRASH

To the person that threw yesterday's (12/7/23) Bullsheet, that featured the submission "Students Against Racist Rhetoric" in the trash,

Did it feel good? Did you feel powerful silencing the voices of your peers? Did it bring you pleasure to quite literally throw away students' right to free speech and ability to engage in community dialogue on our campus?

I implore you to interrogate what offense you seemingly take to anti-racist rhetoric, and am wondering if you even took the time to read the submission in its entirety? If you did, you would understand the role you have played in the decades-long trend of censoring the voices of activists for Palestinian rights. Google the Palestine Exception.

The Bullsheet publishes student submissions that meet the submission requirements outlined in our constitution. This submission, which posed a valid critique of the rhetoric being published and disseminated on our campus, met all of the requirements.

If you disagree with what they wrote,

OKAY! Fine!

You are allowed to. You are NOT allowed to limit the ability for other people to share their opinion and limit the ability for other people to read it.

If you would like to productively contribute to campus dialogue instead of being a wittle baby, boy do I have a community forum for you...

I am increasingly frustrated and disheartened by the lack of basic respect on campus, and I want you to know that if you try to throw out the Bullsheet, we will only print more. Do NOT disrespect the Bull.

I love this publication, and I love this school, but I have no tolerance for people that fail to think and act critically.

Be better.

Signed,

Claire Anderson, Managing Editor.
