DoorDash Reviews That The App Wouldn't Allow Me To Post

Lucy Dale,
Critic

Melissa: 8:37pm, McDonalds group order

10/10 slay, delivered in record time, McFlurries were cold, fries were hot, don't know how she did it, deserves a medal since she saved four helpless college students—who didn't make it to the dining hall in time and refused to use their $12 in freshman-flex-dollars to eat at Slayter—from starvation

Emily: 12:24am, Sheetz snack order

5/10 only delivered half the order, although I had no business ordering Cheetos after midnight on a Thursday just so that I could watch Cloudy With A Chance of Meatballs without my stomach rumbling, so I call this a joint-fail

Brandi: 9:33pm, CVS Oreo

11/10 has my actual heart, I ordered regular double stuffed Oreos and Brandi called me at the store and said CVS was out but then offered to get the family size of mega-stuffed ones, I will forever be in debt to this dasher

Amanda: 9:38pm, Speedway secret sauce

100/10 understood the assignment, heck, she supported the assignment, never thought i'd meet an angel in the Craw parking lot but life does have ways of surprising us

Wenter: 1:07pm, CVS sick-supplies

7/10 trauma bonded with this dasher, I ordered popsicles and tissues the first time I got really sick at Denison and Wenter had to call me while in the store to clarify the type of popsicles, I had no voice and probably sounded like I was trying to do ASMR on the phone—in the end he got the wrong popsicles and the wrong tissues but we are all just trying our best out here

DAY AFTER BID DAY

Mick,
Head Writer

The Monday after Bid Day is one of my favorite days on campus. It should be recognized as a campus holiday. Here are the things that you probably saw on the day after Bid Day:

The Hungover First-Year

This person just had the “greatest day of their life” and now they are sitting next to you in your writing 101. About 18 hours before your writing 101 class they were aggressively pounding jello shots and white claws. This person just went through the most uptight, shit-filled, and pretentious interview process crafted, so they probably deserved to let loose for a second.

The Hungover Senior

This person is either paying full attention in your class or is not there at all. They were spending all of their bid day chugging vodka from a diet coke can and avoiding talking to the new members. Bid Day for seniors is just an excuse to get ridiculously black out drunk and yell “welcome home” at first-years.

The Pissed off CA

These poor people. They just had to listen to “Just Wanna Rock” and “Empire State of Mind” blasting from all directions of their residence hall for hours. They tried their best not to be an asshole and shut down the parties, but they are pissed. If you see a CA around campus this week give them some love. These poor people need a Bid Day Bonus check.

The Unaffiliated Judge

This person thinks you are an idiot for joining a greek organization. They will stare at you until you feel like you did something wrong. They hated Bid Day more than the CA did. At the end of the day this person needs to chill out. Don't worry, everyone on Bid Day will regret their decisions at some point.
