You don't get to know why, but I'm so proud to say that I am a content creator/influencer/mogul for the Wendy's Restaurant brand and could not be more thrilled. This honor is seriously something you can't reach out to the brand about, no matter what. Getting this PR package is the best thing that has ever happened to me and yes, they gave it to me completely willingly. Let me show you all my hand selected and delivered gifts!
