WHAT'S IN THE URN?

Various Artists

Yesterday at the involvement fair, we asked 100 students what was in the mysterious urn left in the Bullsheet office over the summer! Most of these students said ashes. Not funny.

Here are the funny answers:

All of humanity's sins

Toy Clown

Mini beer making kit

Butterflies

Non-beating heart

Ballerina Buzzy Box

Type shit

More of the juice

umm...

"Don't write that down. I didn't mean that."

Rat

Adam Weinberg's toenails

1 princess + 1 frog, Rubber Duck

Rubber Duck

Buzzy voodoo doll

A beating heart

A little toy bull

Clown nose

Matte Red Apple (name or object?)

"There is a Jack in the Box"

A genie (Will Smith)

Another smaller urn with another smaller urn inside that smaller urn but nothing inside that last small urn

WHAT'S ACTUALLY IN THE URN?

Various Staff

At the end of a very uneventful involvement fair (only 11 of you filled out that google form) we finally sat down and opened up that mysterious urn left in our office, and we found.... Trash! Just a pile of trash! Thanks a lot, seniors. This pile included: three candy wrappers, leaves, an empty lanyard, one condom (unused), a mleted starburst, unwanted club stickers, a gay business card (the business is for LGBTQIA+ people), tape, and a small glass vial filled with more trash. Disappointed? Good! So were we! Let our mutual disappointment set the tone for the Bullsheet's energy and content going into the new semester!

Now flip to the back for more laughs (or disappointment)...

What is this?

[explain what the Bullsheet is here before printing. Thanks!]

Oh, like the Onion?

We're nothing like the Onion! We're better and less read! We also don't have access to our Instagram account.

Should I throw away the sheet when I'm done reading it?

NO! Physical Bullsheets are a lot like beanie babies, their value only increases with time. There are some collectors who would pay a very shiny penny for a vintage 2023 sheet!

How often does this Daily Publication print issues?

Every day there's classes!

Wait, you guys publish daily?

Can't you read?

Can I submit articles even though I'm not a writer?

Yes! The Bullsheet accepts student submissions at [put email here]. Publication not guaranteed.

Can I submit articles even though I'm not funny?

Yes! We're not all that funny either!

Does The Bullsheet ever collaborate with other comedy organizations such as the Burpees or Sketchrs?

Nope! The Bullsheet's mission is and will always be to divide this campus as much as possible. In the coming months you can expect slander, propaganda, and manufactured club rivalries. #TheDenisonianSucks

What's in the urn?

That's what we're asking you!

Why are there so many American flags in the Bullsheet's Branding?

What are you a communist?
