Fk, I just ordered a Ceasar Salad on accident for the sake of this article
How Many Clicks to the End of a Grubhub Order? The World May Never Know...

Ed Sheeran Found Out About Taylor Swift's Engagement On Instagram and Hasn't Heard The New Album

Somebody call a wambulance! Listen here ketchup man, it is not on Taylor Swfit to inform everyone she's made a song with that she's engaged. Like, tell your mom, your best friend, and then use social media for what is was made for and share the news. Also, why would she let you listen to the new album pre-release? She's probably scared that you would get it all gross with your ketchup fingers! Next!

Bill Nye The Science Guy Got A Star On The Hollywood Walk Of Fame

Are they just giving these out to anybody now? I mean listen, I loved when my science teacher would click play and the class would start chanting "Bill Bill Bill Bill" but that doesn't mean we should give him a star on the Hollywood walk of fame! Although, he wore a bowtie and I'm a little impressed he's still kickin' cause I thought those videos were made in the '70's. So fine. Cue the theme song!

'NSync Puts Reunion Tour Plans On Hold After Justin Timberlake's Lyme Disease Diagnosis

At the risk of sounding insensitive, I will preface this by saying that I'm not coming for the Lyme Disease Community in any way. However, is this really bad news? I mean I am not a millenial, thank god, but was 'NSync such an amazing boy band that we need another reunion tour because I'm pretty sure we've already done that. Millenials have kids now and I don't think we should be encouraging them to go see a boy band from when they were in high school because who's gonna watch their kids? Huh? It's not gonna be the Gen Z's, we have brains to rot and "how to do your own laundry without your mom's help" videos to watch. I hope it's not gonna be the Gen Alpha kids cause they're clinically insane. So, maybe 'NSync should stay un-reunited for the foreseeable future and Justin Timberlake should stay our of tall grass from now on.

Kim Kardashian Defends Getting Her Lip Tattoo Despite It Being 'Against My Ethos'

I don't even know what to say here because i'm not quite sure what an 'ethos' is and I do not care enough to Google it. Lip tattoos are sick and the harder to decifer what it says the better! Kim, go against your ethos all you want, you live in a reality far above the rest of us.

Mostly A's: You are the mom who unironically wears the "Denison Mom" pin and has probably said the phrase "Are they your friend?" everytime your student waves at someone on campus

Mostly B's: You are the younger sibling in high school who is just glad to have your parents' attention on someone else for once

Mostly C's: You are the dad/mom who has a weekly call set up with your student but spends the whole time discussing their grades

Mostly D's: You can be anyone, but no matter what, you are cool as hell and definitely invited to my pre-game
