

THE BULLSHEET

The Bullsheet, a forum for news, humor, and community dialogue, is funded by DCGA, recycles, and is printed each day that classes are in session. Submissions must be sent before our editors shamble into the office for next day publication via email to: bullsheet@denison.edu. Submissions herein solely reflect the opinions of the authors.

BEVI ARTICLE #3: THE RECKONING

Carter Seipel,
Dead Horse Beater

I really don't mean to sound like the boy who cried Bevi, but we all ought to be concerned about the DEMONIC IMAGERY on the Bevi screen this week. Devil horns on a pomegranate? Pomegranates do NOT have devil horns! They're not even trying to hide their WICKED and SATANIC affiliations anymore! I, for one, won't stand for it! Well... I do enjoy the new flavor and will probably keep on drinking it. Just know my sips are all taken with nothing but pure intentions. Father (aka Bullsheet readers), please forgive me. A(wo)men!

HALLOWEEN OVER. CHRISTMAS TIME!

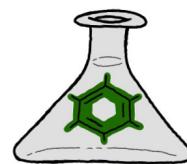

Carter Seipel,
Jolly With Power

November is here but I'd like to think of it as Ho-Ho-Hovember because it's time for Christmas! Yipee! Swap out that candy corn for candy canes and trade in that pumpkin spice for artificial ginger bread flavoring because the holiday season is officially here. What's that? Thanksgiving? How about no Thanks(giving)! I want Christmas and I want it right now.

Effective immediately, the campus will be transformed into a winter wonderland! The Bullsheet will now only print on red AND green paper, Curtis will only play Christmas songs, and every drink from Sips will be spiked with peppermint syrup. Professors will hand out coal instead of bad grades, while the students start using elves to cheat on their homework, which I consider to still be more ethical than using AI. Doesn't that all sound like fun? "No?!" Well, it's too late! The Bullsheet is using its vast influence to make all of these things happen. So buckle your seat belt and enjoy the upcoming sleigh ride!
