GRANVILLE'S "FAMILY FRIENDLIEST" PUBLICATION

Vol. XLV, No. 87

GREAT FAMILY FRIENDLY MOVIES

Lilly Andrews, Movie Critic

Can you never decide what to watch with your diversely aged, 2-siblings 1-dogged and a-babied household? Little Jimmy always wants to watch Cocomelon, and Grandpa's always hankering to look at some old war footage. Well, here are a few movies that are sure to please everyone in the family!

The Piano Teacher – Perfect film about the trials and tribulations of learning an instrument!

Anora — An Oscar Best Picture winner is certain to entertain the whole gang!

Salo, or the 120 Days of Sodom — Sorry, I think I mistyped that title. It should say the 120 Days of Joy and Laughter*. This one is a lot like Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day but way more fun, and for a lot more days.

Happiness — Come on, just read the title!

Frankenhooker — About a fisherman named Frank. A wonderful and touching story, really.

Infinity Pool — Not even gonna try to make a joke about this one. I genuinely watched it with my dad.

Secretary — Best if you have a lawyer in the family.

Eyes Wide Shut — Another classic Nicole Kidman crowdpleaser. Everyone loves her.

Gummo — I'm gonna be honest I don't know what this is about. I just know I'm not eager to watch. Some guy in my cinema class said it was his favorite, and my eyes kinda bugged out of my head.

Crash — Safe step-by-step manual of how to avoid getting into a car crash. Should be shown in driving schools for sure.

Pearl — Absolutely LOVE scarecrows. It's like The Wizard of Oz.

Boogie Nights — Get on that dance floor! Woooooo! Party time!!!!

Trainspotting — My favorite line: "Is that a train I see over there? Oh man. How exciting. I hope I can spot another one."

Honorable Mention: ANY Lars Von Trier movie. Known for his Disney films.
