

HOUSING SELECTION HELP

*William Eddleman,
No Hobo*

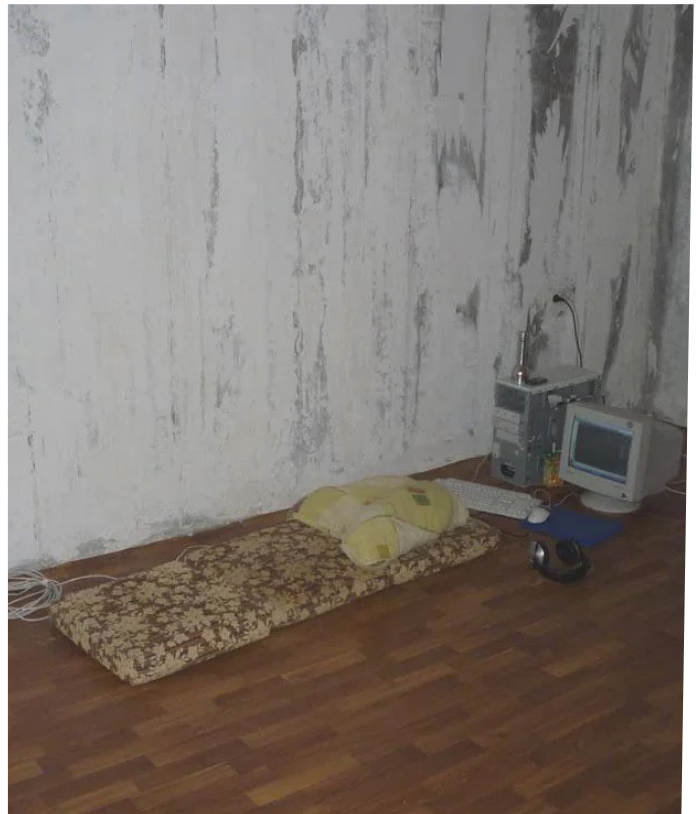

It's that time of year again! The rising sophomores, juniors, and seniors are all in the midst of the housing selection process for next fall. Unfortunately, for whatever reason, some people are in a tricky spot when it comes to planning for housing. Maybe your would-be roommate decided to transfer to another college. Maybe the type of room you wanted was all taken. Maybe you completely forgot to send in the housing form. Whatever the case may be, do not worry, because Denison University is here for YOU! We'll still have plenty of excellent rooms and roommates to choose from for those struggling with the selection process!

1. The Emergency Single - Smith 2nd Floor

Nothing more comforting or accommodating!

2. The Gaming Lounge - Shorney 1st Floor

Told you we'd build it!

3. The Multipurpose Double - Beta 1st Floor

Now 100% free of 40% of Asbestos!

4. Cozy Triple - Crawford Basement

It's not a crackhouse, it's a crackhome

5. Reasonable Temperature Suite - Huffman 4th Floor
Warning: Gets down to a frigid 80° in the winter

6. Multispecies Living Community - East 1st Floor
Perfect for making new friends!

Now that you know your room options, take a look at some roommate profiles! Remember, any of these fine students could be a lifelong friend!

Yo, my name's Joseph. I just transferred from Iowa and I'm looking for a roomie who's chill, but down to party sometimes.

My Dad's a working class tech CEO, so I'm interested in the financial economics major and machine learning minor. I'm also interested in rushing a frat where everyone's not so fucking sensitive, so hmu if you know the good ones. Type shit, type shit.

You might be wondering why I don't have a roommate. I've actually had several, but they said some things about me. Some people just can't take a joke. They were probably just cortisol spiking after I mugged them. If you're ready for collegemaxxing, I think we'd be great roommates. Bonus points if you know a good lawyer.

Adam Weinberg
President

Yeah, it's me. You're probably wondering why I'm in the housing selection process with all the students, right? How about you just mind your own business, hmm? You need a roommate, I need a roommate. Side note: I don't think I should even be able to get evicted in the first place. It's called the PRESIDENT'S HOUSE for God's sake!
